Two of the largest charitable organizations in India operating nationwide with one mission in mind to offer respite and improve the quality of lives of the rejected and under privileged individuals. The organizations have supported over 2,700 projects all over India at an approximate cost of $55 million USD, and made a difference to the lives of over 3 million children and elderly people.

The donations are 100% tax exempt by the Government of India. As part of their resource mobilization program, over 2.5 million mail pieces a year are mailed from donors all over the country, collecting higher amounts each year. The donors have been enlisted through direct mail.

Reciprocation is not required.
